

California State University Channel Islands is the newest campus of the California State University, the largest system of public higher education in the United States. The institution is innovative, student centered, and committed to graduating students with its Four Pillars: a) international and b) multicultural perspectives; c) integrative approaches; and d) community engagement. CSUCI currently serves 7,000 students, and at its full capacity the campus will serve 15,000 students (www.csuci.edu).

The Associate Vice Provost for Faculty Affairs (AVPFA) reports to the Provost and is an integral member of the Provost's academic leadership team. The incumbent provides vision and strategic leadership for the planning and implementation of high quality services to faculty and works closely with the AVPs, Deans, Associate Deans, Department Chairs, faculty, and others on a wide variety of academic personnel issues. The responsibilities are interrelated with all other divisions on campus and require facilitated coordination among and between those entities.

An earned doctorate or other terminal degree from an accredited university or college is required. A tenured faculty appointment in one of the academic departments of the University may be awarded to an applicant with a terminal degree who also has a record of teaching, research/scholarly, and creative activities, and service sufficient to merit such an appointment. The ideal candidate should have evidence of progressively responsible administrative experience in a complex organization, including effective personnel administration, collaboration, and leadership; strategic planning process analysis; and institutional information analysis. They should also have significant experience with faculty on a collective bargaining campus or the equivalent experience on a shared governance campus with strong faculty collaboration and consultation. A full listing of the qualifications and duties of the position can be found in the profile under "Current Searches" at www.academic-search.com.

The University is being assisted by Academic Search, Inc. Applications should consist of a substantive cover letter, a curriculum vitae, and a list of five professional references with full contact information. No references will be contacted without the explicit permission of the candidate. Applications, nominations, and expressions of interest can be submitted electronically, and in confidence, to:
CSUCIAVPFA@academic-search.com.

The position is open until filled but only applications received by January 22, 2019, can be assured full consideration. Confidential discussions about this opportunity may be arranged by contacting consultants Ann Die Hasselmo at Ann.Hasselmo@academic-search.com and Chris Butler at Chris.Butler@academic-search.com.

California State University Channel Islands is an Affirmative Action/Equal Opportunity Employer. We consider qualified applicants for employment without regard to race, religion, color, national origin, ancestry, age, sex, gender, gender identity, gender expression, sexual orientation, genetic information, medical condition, disability, marital status or protected veteran status.